

Hebrew and Jewish Studies Unit
University of Oxford

THE COROB LECTURES IN YIDDISH CULTURE

Professor Jeremy Dauber
(Columbia University)

will deliver the first lecture in this series on Monday 2 November 2009 at 5.00pm in the Taylor Institution

“Frightening Jews: Two Early Yiddish Ghost Stories and the Origins of Jewish Horror”

Refreshments will be provided after the lecture

ALL ARE WELCOME

Professor Dauber will also be giving a special seminar in the series on Modern Jewish Literatures, on: “What Is a Yiddish Fable? : Ideology and Epistemology in the Early Modern Seyfer Mesholim” on Tuesday 3 November at 1pm in the Oriental Institute