

THE DAVID PATTERSON LECTURES

The lectures are held in the Catherine Lewis Lecture Room,
Oxford Centre for Hebrew and Jewish Studies,
Clarendon Institute, Walton Street, Oxford, OX1 2HG (Tel. 01865 610422)

THURSDAYS 6.00-7.15pm

23 January

Dr Oded Nir (Queens College, CUNY)

The 'No-place' in Contemporary Israeli TV and Film

30 January

Dr Roman Nyczyporowski (Gdansk Academy of Fine Arts)

Negotiating Art, Memory and the Holocaust in Contemporary Poland

6 February

Professor Lesley Smith (University of Oxford)

William of Auvergne, bishop of Paris (d. 1249), and the Jews

13 February

In lieu of a David Patterson Lecture there will be a screening and roundtable discussion of the film Black Honey, The Life and Poetry of Avraham Sutzkever (dir. Uri Barbash). Please note that this event is supported by the annual Brichto Israeli Arts and Culture Lecture Fund. This event will run from 6pm to 8pm

20 February

Professor Jan Joosten and Dr John Screnock (Centre for Hebrew and Jewish Studies)

'The Bible and the Dead Sea Scrolls' (Part II in the series The History of the Bible from Qumran to Today)

27 February

Professor Gideon Bohak (Tel Aviv University)

'The Nooks and Crannies of the Cairo Genizah'

5 March

Professor Edwin Seroussi (Hebrew University of Jerusalem)

'Hatikvah: An Oriental piyyut'

12 March

Professor Ruth HaCohen (Hebrew University of Jerusalem)

'I had heard you with my ears. Modern Jews and Christians listening to Job'

ALL WELCOME

HILARY TERM 2020